NY-YIP to honor Glass with Young Insurance Professional of the Year award

GLENMONT, N.Y.—The Professional Insurance Agents' New York Young Insurance Professionals will present Marshall Glass with the NY-YIP Young Insurance Professional of the Year award on Aug. 15 at the NY-YIP Annual Golf Outing. The event is being held at Seawane Club in Hewlett Harbor, N.Y. Glass is downstate regional sales manager for The Iroquois Group.

This award is presented by NY-YIP to honor an individual who has contributed a great deal of time and talent to help support the association and its programs. NY-YIP, an affiliate of PIANY, promotes the professional and personal growth of those new to the insurance field by providing education and networking opportunities.

“Marshall’s tireless commitment to the industry is to be commended,” said Jason Bartow, president of NY-YIP. “He has earned the respect from his colleagues and customers that he deserves. We are proud to present him with this award.”

PIANY is a trade association representing professional, independent insurance agencies and their employees throughout the state.
