Help PIANJ reward deserving professionals

2012 Distinction of Professionalism Awards

Now accepting nominations

PIANJ takes great pride in its professionalism, and considers it important to recognize the professionalism of others in the insurance industry.

At the upcoming PIANJ Annual Business Conference on June 10-12 at Trump Taj Mahal Casino Resort, your association will honor an insurance professional who exemplify the qualities and actions that serve as an example of industry excellence to us all.

Professional Agent of the Year—demonstrates excellence and achievement in insurance marketing and service; personal commitment to professionalism; contributions to PIA and the community.

Company Person of the Year—demonstrates those qualities that best foster a sound working relationship between insurance agent and company.

Distinguished Insurance Service—has established a history of service to the American agency system and/or PIANJ.

Community Service Award—has had a leadership role in a significant activity for the betterment of the community and/or its individuals.
